

Volunteer Role Description YEP Educates Tutor

Description

The YEP Educates Tutor is responsible for providing 1-1 or small group academic tutoring to YEP Educates students and alumni. The YEP Educates Tutor will provide direct academic assistance to participating students as well as offer encouragement in order to help with improving confidence and persistence toward earning a high school equivalency or postsecondary credential.

The YEP Educates Tutor will receive materials and lessons prepared by YEP Educates Instructors. Additionally, the YEP Educates Tutor will receive thorough training prior to engaging directly with participants.

The YEP Educates Tutor will report to the Curriculum Specialist and will be required to observe YEP mandated COVID-19 safety precautions when engaging with young people.

The minimum time commitment expected of a YEP Educates Tutor is one hour per week for a period of three months. YEP Educates hosts on site tutoring on Friday mornings, but tutoring can be scheduled outside of this time with the approval of the Curriculum Specialist. Tutoring can occur remotely or in person.

Responsibilities

Provide 1-1 or small group academic tutoring

Communicate clearly and timely with participants and Curriculum Specialist

Model YEP's core values in all interactions with participants, staff, guests

Qualifications

- Comfortable with tutoring academic content (all subject areas and levels needed)
- Able to commit to a minimum of one hour/week for a period of three months
- Open to receiving and providing direct feedback on role satisfaction and performance
- Spanish fluency and interest tutoring academic content for Spanish speaking students is a plus!

Key Outcomes

- YEP Educates students and alumni have access to additional 1-1 and small group academic support outside of regular class hours
- YEP Educates Tutors have a positive experience and increase knowledge and support of YEP's mission

