INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Directors
Youth Empowerment Project
New Orleans, Louisiana

Report on the Audit of the Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Youth Empowerment Project (YEP), (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statement of financial position as of June 30, 2025, and the related statements of activities and changes in net assets, functional expenses, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of YEP as of June 30, 2025, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of YEP and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinions.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about YEP's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and Government Auditing Standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and Government Auditing Standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of YEP's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about YEP's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Supplementary Information

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The accompanying schedule of expenditures of federal awards, as required by Title 2 U.S. Code of Federal Regulations Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards, is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the schedule of expenditures of federal awards is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

Other Reporting Required by Government Auditing Standards

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, we have also issued our report dated December 15, 2025, on our consideration of YEP's internal control over financial reporting and on our tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements and other matters. The purpose of that report is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over financial reporting and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of YEP's internal control over financial reporting or on compliance. That report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering YEP's internal control over financial reporting and compliance.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
JUNE 30, 2025

NOTE 1 – NATURE OF ACTIVITIES

Organizational History

Youth Empowerment Project (YEP) is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that is based in New Orleans, Louisiana. YEP was founded in 2004 by three juvenile justice advocates to support formerly incarcerated young people as they transitioned back into their communities. It was the first program of its kind in the state of Louisiana. Since then, YEP has expanded to engage young people who live in poverty, are out of school or work, or have experienced trauma.

Today, YEP's mission is to engage young people through community-based education, mentoring, employment readiness, and enrichment programs to help them develop skills and strengthen ties to family and community. As a community-based nonprofit, these programs have been developed in response to unmet community needs and are aligned with YEP's core purpose, which is to empower young people to improve their lives and the lives of others.

Who We Serve

YEP's four service areas work collectively to support young people and adults ages 7 and up as they pursue individualized goals and achieve positive life outcomes. 78% of participants identify as African American or Black, nearly 70% report an annual household income of less than $20,000, and 70% reside in a single female headed household.

Many young people and families in the Greater New Orleans area struggle to overcome the historical underinvestment in public education, limited access to living wage jobs, and an epidemic of mass incarceration. These systemic practices perpetuate inequities and limit the opportunities that certain individuals and families have for escaping poverty and the negative outcomes that result.

What We Do

YEP is committed to addressing these persistent social issues through direct service and education. Our goal is to connect young people to the opportunities, relationships, and resources they need to achieve their potential. Our four service areas include:

YEP Mentors is a community-based mentoring program for system-involved young people, ages 8 to 21, who are referred to YEP by the Louisiana Office of Juvenile Justice, and local courts and district attorneys offices. YEP youth advocates provide participants with supportive services, individualized goal setting, and case management.

YEP Enriches is an out-of-school time enrichment program for young people, ages 7 to 18, with locations in the Central City and New Orleans East neighborhoods of New Orleans. YEP's Afterschool Program and Summer Camp offer a range of structured activities, including a basketball team, drumline and dance team, as well as cooking classes, arts and music instruction, tutoring, and homework help.

NOTE 1 – NATURE OF ACTIVITIES - CONTINUED

YEP Educates is an adult education program that provides high school equivalency test preparation and basic instruction to out-of-school youth and adults ages 16 and up. Services are available at three sites in the Greater New Orleans area and students can choose to attend in either Mid-City, Algiers or New Orleans East. Our post-secondary transition team helps students enroll in post-secondary education and training programs while securing financial aid to support their education.

YEP Works is a work-based learning program that engages young people between the ages of 16 and 24 who are enrolled in YEP Educates or another alternative education program, or who are disconnected from school. Participants earn hourly stipends while developing social emotional competencies and gaining transferable work-based skills in customer service. Our employment transition team helps graduates progress into employment, internships, post-secondary education, and advanced training programs.

YEP's community impact for the 2024-2025 fiscal year includes the following outcomes:

- YEP engaged a total of 1,067 individuals in programming and services. 99% of participants expressed satisfaction with their experience at YEP.
- 81% of participants demonstrated an improvement in their emotional wellbeing as a result of participating in a YEP program.
- At YEP Educates, 142 students earned their high school equivalency diploma.
- At YEP Enriches, 208 young people participated in afterschool enrichment and/or summer camp. Of the young people who participated in arts and music programming 100% improved their skills.
- In YEP Mentors, 229 young people participated in one-on-one mentoring and case management. Of those participants, 97% had no further involvement with the juvenile justice system at the time of program completion.
- In YEP Works, 138 young people participated in employment readiness training. Of these, 96% showed a measurable improvement in employability and 96% earned an industry-recognized credential.

NOTE 2 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of accounting – The accompanying financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Accordingly, revenues are recognized when earned and expenses are recorded when incurred.

Basis of presentation – The financial statements of YEP have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (“US GAAP”), which requires YEP to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to the following net asset classifications:

Net assets without donor restrictions: Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed restrictions and may be expended for any purpose in performing the primary objectives of the organization. These net assets may be used at the discretion of YEPs management and the board of directors.

Net assets with donor restrictions: Net assets subject to stipulations imposed by donors and grantors. Some donor restrictions are temporary in nature; those restrictions will be met by actions of YEP or by the passage of time. Other donor restrictions are perpetual in nature, whereby the donor has stipulated the funds be maintained in perpetuity. Donor imposed restrictions are released when a restriction expires, that is, when the stipulated time has elapsed, when the stipulated purpose for which the resource was restricted has been fulfilled, or both.

Cash and cash equivalents – Cash includes amounts on deposit at financial institutions. For purposes of the statement of cash flows, YEP considers all unrestricted highly liquid investments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. Cash and highly liquid financial instruments restricted for certain projects or other long-term purposes are excluded from this definition.

Promises to give – YEP records unconditional promises to give that are expected to be collected within one year at net realizable value. Unconditional promises to give expected to be collected in future years are initially recorded at fair value using present value techniques incorporating risk-adjusted discount rates designed to reflect the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the asset. In subsequent years, amortization of the discounts is included in contribution revenue in the statement of activities. Promises to give are written off when deemed uncollectible. At June 30, 2025, management has deemed that no allowance for uncollectible amounts is necessary.

Reimbursement receivable – Amounts expected to be collected within one year derived from cost-reimbursable federal and state contracts, and grants. Receivables are written off when deemed uncollectible. At June 30, 2025, management has deemed that no allowance for uncollectible amounts is necessary.

Prepaid expenses – Payments to vendors for services that will benefit future periods are recorded as prepaid assets in the statement of financial position.

Property, furniture and equipment - All expenditures for leasehold improvements and equipment are capitalized. Depreciation on property and improvements is provided by using the straight-line method over the estimated life of 39 years. Depreciation on furniture and equipment is provided by using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of 5 to 7 years.

NOTE 2 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES – CONTINUED

Investments – YEP reports its investments in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles for not-for-profit organizations, which establish accounting standards for investments in certain equity securities and for all debt securities. The guidance prescribes that covered investments be reported in the Statement of Financial Position at fair value (see NOTE 3). Net investment return (loss) consists of interest and dividend income, realized and unrealized capital gains and losses, less external and direct internal investment expenses and is reported in the Statement of Activities and Changes in Net Assets.

Inventory – YEP Bike Works maintains an inventory of bicycles and bicycle parts for use in the training of participants in the repair and refurbishing of bicycles. YEP states inventory at the lower of LIFO cost or net realizable value. The inventory as of June 30, 2025 was $39,110.

Revenue from Contracts with Customers – YEP earns revenue from contracts with the Office of Juvenile Justice, Orleans Parish Juvenile Court and NOLA Business Alliance services for youths in the Orleans and the River Parishes. Office of Juvenile Justice Family Support/Youth Transition (FSYT) program, Orleans Parish Juvenile Court and NOLA Business Alliance pays YEP a fixed daily rate per participant based on the number of days services are provided. The performance obligations are met when transitional, instructional and coaching services are provided based on the contract. These performance obligations are measured through monthly reporting. Invoices are submitted monthly for services rendered and earned in the prior month.

YEP also earned revenue from contracts with the Office of Juvenile Justice Diversion Programs that is based on a fixed monthly amount. The performance obligation was to provide diversion services in Orleans and the River Parishes which are measured through monthly service reports. Invoices were submitted monthly for services rendered and earned in the prior month. This contract ended on June 30, 2025.

Deferred revenue, revenue and revenue recognition – YEP recognizes program service revenue through their work and learn programs at the point of sale.

A portion of YEP's revenue is derived from cost-reimbursable federal and state contracts and grants, which are conditioned upon certain performance requirements and/or the incurrence of allowable qualifying expenses. Amounts are recognized as revenue when YEP has incurred expenditures in compliance with specific contract or grant provisions.

YEP recognizes grant revenue and contributions when cash, securities or other assets, an unconditional promise to give, or a notification of a beneficial interest is received. Conditional promises to give - that is, those with a measurable performance or other barrier and a right of return - are not recognized until the conditions on which they depend have been met.

Consequently, at June 30, 2025, contributions received approximating $50,000, have not been recognized as revenue in the accompanying Statement of Activities and Changes in Net Assets because the condition(s) on which they depend has not yet been met. These contributions have been recorded on the Statement of Financial Position as deferred revenue until such conditions are met.

Contributed nonfinancial asset - YEP occupies classroom space in the New Orleans Adult Learning Center in New Orleans, Louisiana for YEP Educates classes throughout the fiscal year. No rent is paid by YEP. The amount of $12,960 has been recognized in the accompanying Statement of Activities and Changes in Net Assets as contributed non-financial assets and a program expense under FASB ASC 958. The in-kind support of the New Orleans Adult Learning Center includes the use of the facility and all costs and expenses associated with the use of the facility by YEP for any and all classes scheduled by it. The amount of the support is estimated by using the fair value per square foot of recent property lease agreements in the same area.

YEP also occupies classroom space in the Arthur Monday Multi-Purpose Center in New Orleans, Louisiana for YEP Educates classes throughout the fiscal year. No rent is paid by YEP. The amount of $34,990 has been recognized in the accompanying Statement of Activities and Changes in Net Assets as contributed non-financial assets and a program expense under FASB ASC 958. The in-kind support provided by the Arthur Monday Multi-Purpose Center includes the use of the facility and all costs and expenses associated with the use of the facility by YEP for any and all classes scheduled by it. The amount of the support is estimated by using the fair value per square foot of recent property lease agreements in the same area.

Functional expenses – The financial statements report expenses by both their natural and functional classifications. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among program services, management and general, and fundraising activities. Direct costs are charged to the related function when specifically identifiable. Indirect costs, which benefit multiple functions, are allocated based on reasonable methods such as the proportion of direct expenses, square-footage, time and effort, or other relevant factors.

Income taxes - YEP is a non-profit corporation organized under the laws of the State of Louisiana. It is exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and qualifies as an organization that is not a private foundation as defined in Section 509(a) of the Code. It is exempt from Louisiana income tax under the authority of R.S. 47:121(5). YEP recognizes the financial impact of a tax position when it is more likely than not that the position will not be sustained upon examination. As of June 30, 2025, YEP did not have any uncertain tax positions. Tax years ended June 30, 2024, 2023, and 2022 remain subject to examination by taxing authorities.

Use of estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Right-of-Use Asset and Lease Liability - YEP determines if an arrangement contains a lease at the inception of a contract. Right-of-use asset represents YEP's right to use an underlying asset for the lease term and lease liability represents YEP's obligation to make lease payments arising from the lease. The right-of-use asset and lease liability are recognized at the commencement date of the lease, renewal date of the lease or significant remodeling of the lease space based on the present value of the remaining future minimum lease payments. As the interest rate implicit in YEP's lease is not readily determinable, YEP utilizes the risk-free rate, determined by class of underlying asset, to discount the lease payments.

JUNE 30, 2025

The YEP's real estate leases typically do not contain options that permit renewals for additional periods. Renewal options are included in the lease term for non-real estate leases if they are considered reasonably certain of being exercised at lease commencement, and the renewal option periods are included within the lease term and the associated payments are included in the measurement of the right-of-use asset and lease liability. Certain leases require additional variable payments, which are expensed as incurred as variable lease costs.

Liquidity – Assets are presented in the accompanying statement of financial position according to their nearness of conversion to cash and liabilities according to the nearness of their maturity and resulting use of cash.

NOTE 3 – FAIR VALUE OF INVESTMENTS

FASB ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value, and expands disclosure about fair value. Fair value concepts are applied in recording investments.

FASB ASC 820 establishes a fair value hierarchy which prioritizes inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The term "inputs" refers broadly to the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing an asset or liability. Inputs may be based on independent market data ("observable inputs") or they may be internally developed ("unobservable inputs"). The fair value hierarchy prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value into three broad categories. These levels include Level 1, unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities; Level 2, directly or indirectly observable inputs other than quoted prices for the asset or liability, such as the quoted market prices for similar assets or liabilities; and Level 3, unobservable inputs for use when little or no market data exists, therefore, requiring an entity to develop its own assumptions. The asset's or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of the unobservable inputs.

YEP's measurements of fair value are made on a recurring basis, and its valuation techniques for assets and liabilities recorded at fair value are as follows:

Bank deposits: The carrying amount reported on the last day of the year approximates the fair value of bank deposits.

Exchange-traded funds and mutual funds: Valued at the closing price reported on the active market on which the individual securities are traded.

Pooled assets: The values of the investments in this pool are based on information provided by GNOF and include the use of Net Asset Values (NAV) as the primary input to measure fair value.

The methods described above may produce fair value calculations that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, while YEP believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

NOTE 3 – FAIR VALUE OF INVESTMENTS – CONTINUED

The following represents fair value of YEP's investments as of June 30, 2025:

|  | Level 1      | Level 2    | Level 3 | Total        |

|  | $ 3,403,356 | $ 841,190 | $ -    | $ 4,244,546 |

The method described above may produce fair value calculations that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, while YEP believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with those of other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

NOTE 4 – PROMISES TO GIVE, NET

Unconditional promises to give at June 30, 2025 total $115,833 and are estimated to be collected within one year. At June 30, 2025, three donors accounted for 91% of total promises to give.

NOTE 5 – REIMBURSEMENTS RECEIVABLE

YEP has incurred reimbursable expenses related to providing services to court-involved, at-risk, and out of school youths at June 30, 2025.

A receivable has been recorded on these cases as follows:

|                                    |                   |

JUNE 30, 2025

NOTE 6 – LIQUIDITY AND AVAILABILITY OF FINANCIAL ASSETS

YEP regularly monitors liquidity required to meet its operating needs and other contractual commitments, while also striving to maximize the investment of its available funds. YEP has various sources of liquidity at its disposal, including cash and cash equivalents, investments and a line of credit in the amount of $400,000 (see Note 9).

For purposes of analyzing resources available to meet general expenditures over a 12-month period, YEP considers all expenditures related to its ongoing activities of programs, administration and fundraising as well as the conduct of services undertaken to support those activities to be general expenditures.

In addition to financial assets available to meet general expenses over the next 12 months, YEP operates with a balanced budget and anticipates collecting sufficient revenue to cover general expenses not covered by donor-restricted resources. Refer to the Statement of Cash Flows which identifies the sources and uses of YEP's cash for fiscal year June 30, 2025.

As of June 30, 2025, the following table show the total financial assets held by YEP and the amounts of those financial assets that could readily be made available within one year of the Statement of Financial Position date to meet general expenditures:

|                                    |                     |
|------------------------------------|---------------------|
| Financial assets at year-end       |                     |
| Cash and cash equivalents          | $ 543,392          |
| Investments                        | 3,998,750           |
| Accrued interest                   | 25,673              |
| Promises to give, net              | 115,833             |
| Reimbursements receivable          | 466,634      |
| Total financial assets at year-end | $ 5,150,252 |

Some assets have been deemed not likely to be converted into cash within one year, and therefore, are not available to be used to satisfy general expenditures in the following year. Should YEP have excess cash, YEP would invest such cash into short term investments.

NOTE 7 – PROPERTY, FURNITURE AND EQUIPMENT

Property, furniture and equipment consisted of the following at June 30, 2025.

Depreciation expense for the year ended June 30, 2025 was $67,488.

The discount rate used to calculate the lease liability balance was the 5-year treasury rate of 1.5%.

The following table is a summary of the components of net lease expenses for the year ended June 30, 2025:

NOTE 9 – LINE OF CREDIT

YEP has a $400,000 revolving line of credit with a bank, secured by 1529 Oretha Castle Haley Blvd., New Orleans. Borrowings under the line bear interest at the Wall Street Journal Prime plus 1.5%. Accrued interest and principal are due December 19, 2025. During 2025, YEP borrowed and repaid $300,000 from the line of credit. YEP had a balance of $0 at June 30, 2025.

NOTE 10 – EMPLOYEE PENSION PLAN

YEP adopted a 403b plan that is available to all eligible employees. YEP has elected to match contributions of up to 50% of 6% of employee's elective deferral for 2024–2025 compensation for each participating employee. YEP's obligation for contributions to the plan as of June 30, 2025 was $60,099 which consisted entirely of the YEP's employer matching contribution.

NOTE 11 – CREDIT RISK CONCENTRATION AND MAJOR FUNDING SOURCES

YEP maintains its cash equivalents in financial institutions in Louisiana. The balances are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) up to $250,000. On June 30, 2025, YEP had cash balances in excess of FDIC insured limits. The cash balances, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. YEP has not experienced any losses in such accounts and believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk on cash.

YEP receives grants, contributions and contracts for services from federal and state agencies, the public and foundations, which comprises the majority of its revenue.

NOTE 12 – FUNDS HELD BY THE GREATER NEW ORLEANS FOUNDATION

During 2025, YEP established an endowment fund at the Greater New Orleans Foundation (GNOF). These funds are in an investment pool managed by GNOF. The fund is invested in GNOF's pooled portfolio and administered under GNOF's Endowed Fund Spending Policy. Contributions to GNOF are irrevocable and GNOF retains variance power and exclusive legal control over contributed assets.

YEP's Board interprets the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (UPMIFA) to require preservation of the historic dollar value of donor-restricted endowment gifts in perpetuity (absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary). Accordingly, YEP classifies (a) the historic dollar value of endowment gifts as net assets with donor restrictions (perpetual) and (b) unappropriated earnings and appreciation as net assets with donor restrictions—subject to appropriation until appropriated for expenditure by the Board. Investment return on donor-restricted endowments is reported within with donor restrictions until appropriation. No appropriations were made in 2025.

GNOF employs a total-return investment approach. The spending policy makes available 4% of the 12-quarter rolling average fair value of the fund, measured each year on September 30; if the fund is underwater at that date (fair value below historic dollar value), no appropriation is made for the following year. New endowed gifts must be invested for four full quarters prior to December 31 before the first appropriation is available. Investment management and administrative fees are charged against ordinary income of the fund and not against historic dollar value. YEP paid fees to GNOF of $925 for the year ended June 30, 2025. Any unexpended appropriations are reinvested.

At June 30, 2025, YEP had no underwater endowment funds (i.e., no fund with fair value below the amount required to be maintained).

The table below represents the endowment related activity for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2025:

|  | Net assets with donorrestrictions |
|--|---------------------------------------|

NOTE 13 – LITIGATION AND CLAIMS

There is no pending litigation against YEP at June 30, 2025. Furthermore, the management of YEP believes that any potential lawsuits would be adequately covered by insurance

NOTE 14 – BOARD OF DIRECTORS' COMPENSATION

The Board of Directors is a voluntary board; therefore, no compensation has been paid to any member.

NOTE 15 – NET ASSETS WITH DONOR RESTRICTIONS

At June 30, 2025, net assets with donor restrictions totaled $245,796. These amounts include funds held in a donor-restricted endowment with the Greater New Orleans Foundation, established to support the Organization's programs in perpetuity. The corpus of the endowment, $226,694, is restricted in perpetuity, while any accumulated investment returns, $19,102 as of June 30, 2025, is classified as net assets with donor restrictions and subject to appropriation until such time as it is appropriated for expenditure in accordance with the Organization's spending policy.

NOTE 16 – SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Management evaluates events occurring subsequent to the date of the financial statements in determining the accounting for and disclosure of transactions and events that affect the financial statements.

Subsequent to year end, the federal government experienced a partial shutdown, creating uncertainty regarding the continuation of Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) funding. Management is monitoring potential impacts on program operations and participant support should the disruption persist.

Subsequent events have been evaluated through December 15, 2025, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued and management determined no additional events occurred that require disclosure.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING AND ON COMPLIANCE AND OTHER MATTERS BASED ON AN AUDIT OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS PERFORMED IN ACCORDANCE WITH GOVERNMENT AUDITING STANDARDS

To the Board of Directors of
Youth Empowerment Project
New Orleans, Louisiana

We have audited, in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, the financial statements of Youth Empowerment Project (YEP) (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statement of financial position as of June 30, 2025, and the related statements of activities and changes in net assets, functional expenses and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements, and have issued our report thereon dated December 15, 2025.

Report on Internal Control over Financial Reporting

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements, we considered YEP's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing the audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of YEP's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of YEP's internal control.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the entity's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies. Given these limitations, during our audit we did not identify any deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses. However, material weaknesses or significant deficiencies may exist that were not identified.

Report on Compliance and Other Matters

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether YEP's financial statements are free from material misstatement, we performed tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements, noncompliance with which could have a direct and material effect on the financial statements. However, providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions was not an objective of our audit, and accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. The results of our tests disclosed no instances of noncompliance or other matters that are required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards.

Purpose of this Report

The purpose of this report is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of YEP's internal control or on compliance. This report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering YEP's internal control and compliance. Accordingly, this communication is not suitable for any other purpose. However, under Louisiana Revised Statute 24:513, this report is distributed by the Legislative Auditor as a public document.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON COMPLIANCE
FOR EACH MAJOR PROGRAM AND ON INTERNAL CONTROL OVER COMPLIANCE
REQUIRED BY THE UNIFORM GUIDANCE

To the Board of Directors of
Youth Empowerment Project
New Orleans, Louisiana

Report on Compliance for Each Major Federal Program

Opinion on Each Major Federal Program

We have audited Youth Empowerment Project's (YEP) compliance with the types of compliance requirements identified as subject to audit in the OMB Compliance Supplement that could have a direct and material effect on each of YEP's major federal programs for the year ended June 30, 2025. YEP's major federal programs are identified in the summary of auditors' results section of the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs.

In our opinion, YEP complied, in all material respects, with the types of compliance requirements referred to above that could have a direct and material effect on each of its major federal programs for the year ended June 30, 2025.

Basis for Opinion on Each Major Federal Program

We conducted our audit of compliance in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America; the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States; and the audit requirements of Title 2 U.S. Code of Federal Regulations Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards (Uniform Guidance). Our responsibilities under those standards and the Uniform Guidance are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of Compliance section of our report.

We are required to be independent of YEP and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion on compliance for each major federal program. Our audit does not provide a legal determination of YEP's compliance with the compliance requirements referred to above.

Responsibilities of Management for Compliance

Management is responsible for compliance with the requirements referred to above and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of effective internal control over compliance with the requirements of laws, statutes, regulations, rules, and provisions of contracts or grant agreements applicable to YEP's federal programs.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of Compliance

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether material noncompliance with the compliance requirements referred to above occurred, whether due to fraud or error, and express an opinion on YEP's compliance based on our audit. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, Government Auditing Standards, and the Uniform Guidance will always detect material noncompliance when it exists. The risk of not detecting material noncompliance resulting from fraud is higher than for that resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Noncompliance with the compliance requirements referred to above is considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, it would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user of the report on compliance about YEP's compliance with the requirements of each major federal program as a whole.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, Government Auditing Standards, and the Uniform Guidance, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material noncompliance, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding YEP's compliance with the compliance requirements referred to above and performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.
- Obtain an understanding of YEP's internal control over compliance relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances and to test and report on internal control over compliance in accordance with the Uniform Guidance, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of YEP's internal control over compliance. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and any significant deficiencies and material weaknesses in internal control over compliance that we identified during the audit.

Report on Internal Control over Compliance

A deficiency in internal control over compliance exists when the design or operation of a control over compliance does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, noncompliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program on a timely basis. A material weakness in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance, such that there is a reasonable possibility that material noncompliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. A significant deficiency in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program that is less severe than a material weakness in internal control over compliance, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control over compliance was for the limited purpose described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of Compliance section above and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control over compliance that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies in internal control over compliance. Given these limitations, during our audit we did not identify any deficiencies in internal control over compliance that we consider to be material weaknesses, as defined above. However, material weaknesses or significant deficiencies in internal control over compliance may exist that were not identified.

Our audit was not designed for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of internal control over compliance. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.

The purpose of this report on internal control over compliance is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over compliance and the results of that testing based on the requirements of the Uniform Guidance. Accordingly, this report is not suitable for any other purpose. However, under Louisiana Revised Statute 24:513, this report is distributed by the Legislative Auditor as a public document.

NOTES TO THE SCHEDULE

NOTE A – BASIS OF PRESENTATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The accompanying Schedule of Expenditures of Federal Awards includes the federal grant activity of Youth Empowerment Project and is presented on the accrual basis of accounting. The information in this schedule is presented in accordance with the requirements of Title 2 U.S. Code of Federal Regulations Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards (Uniform Guidance). Because the schedule presents only a selected portion of the operations of YEP, it is not intended to and does not present the financial position and changes in the net assets of YEP. Therefore, some amounts presented in this schedule may differ from amounts presented in, or used in the preparation of, the basic financial statements.

NOTE B – DE MINIMIS COST RATE

During the year ended June 30, 2025, YEP did not elect to use the 10% de minimis cost rate as covered in Section 200.414 of the Uniform Guidance.
